Magarey family

PRG 343 contains papers of the Magarey family for the years 1856 -1932; mainly relating to
A. T. (Thomas) Magarey (1825-1902) and Dr. Sylvanus James Magarey (1850-1901).

A T. (Thomas) Magarey, the third child of James Magarey and Elizabeth Magarey (nee Ashley) was born at "Bryansford", County Down, Ireland in 1825. After James' death his widow and the children James, Thomas, Mary Ellen and William went to live with George Ashley. In 1841, Thomas with his elder brother James emigrated to Nelson, New Zealand and then to South Australia in 1845. Thomas married Elizabeth Verco in 1848. The two oldest of their ten children were Alexander Thomas Magarey (1849- 19? ) and Sylvanus James Magarey (1850-1901).

In 1849 Thomas and James Magarey bought Ridley's flour mill in Hindmarsh from John Ridley. This proved extremely successful financially. James Magarey drowned in the shipwreck of the "Admella" off the Victorian coast in 1859.

Thomas Magarey is regarded as the founder of the Church of Christ movement in South Australia, actively promoting the cause and opening the Franklin St. church in 1846. In 1875 he became the Secretary of the first committee of the Evangelistic Union of Churches of Christ. In 1880 he dissociated himself from the Church of Christ and joined the Brethren movement. Thomas Magarey was also deeply involved in civic affairs, and became a member of the first Hindmarsh District Council in 1853. In 1860 he was elected to the House of Assembly and later to the Legislative Council (1865-67). Thomas Magarey was also recognised as an influential pastoral pioneer, owning or leasing extensive sheep runs at Naracoorte and on the Eyre Peninsula. He was one of the original directors of the Bank of Adelaide and a director of the "Adelaide Register". Thomas Magarey died at the family home in Enfield in 1902.

Alexander Thomas and Dr. Sylvanus James Magarey were also actively involved in the Churches of Christ and in the temperance movement, the S. A. Alliance. Dr. S. J. Magarey was the Superintendent of the Grote Street Sunday School for 23 years and was a well known temperance advocate, serving as secretary and president of the Alliance. He was elected to the Legislative Council representing the Alliance in 1888.
A partial family tree showing the relationships of family members with records in PRG 343 is as follows:

Magarey Family:
James m. Elizabeth Ashley (1) married Jane McDonald (2) and had 8 children: James (who had 2 children William James and William Ashley), A. T. (Thomas), Mary, William, 4 others.

A. T. (Thomas) married Elizabeth Verco. They had 10 children Alexander Thomas (who had two children), Sylvanus James, Jane, Bertha, Rupert, James, Thomas, Eliza, Cromwell and Ellen.

Sylvanus James had 7 children: Frank William, Percy Robertson, William Thomas and 4 others.

Ashley Family:
William Magarey married Mary Hulme and had 8 children Elizabeth, George, Sarah, Anne and 4 others.

Fawn coloured photograph album of [34] photographs from the 42nd Annual Universities' Boat Race for Oxford and Cambridge Cup, Nepean River, Penrith, New South Wales, 3 June 1933, with some [22] loose ones inside. (JRM was a member of the Adelaide University crew, which won — for the first and only time, I was led to believe. There was also some story, fairly hushed up, that the course had not been measured accurately so that it was longer than specified in the regulations, and that this had been a factor in the Adelaide University crew’s victory.) [Also included is a program for the boat race, and another photo; and another for the same series for 8 June 1935, held in Melbourne.]
[Formerly Box 1, item 15.]

Roll containing 1. warrant for JRM’s appointment as Assistant Sea Scoutmaster, 1931; 2. University of Adelaide certificate admitting JRM to degrees of Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery, 14 December 1938; and 3. a certificate appointing JRM a member of the Active Citizen Military Forces of the Commonwealth from 19 April 1939 with the rank of Captain.
[Formerly Box 1, item 16.]

Two photograph albums, one beginning with photographs of Rupert Magarey's and Elsie Cowell's wedding, then pictures of JRM as a baby, then in December 1915 a child with a mop of quite long hair; the next baby is Nan, the one daughter, later Nan Riceman; the second begins with pictures of JRM and Nan and an umbrella in February 1917, the next baby is Roy, then Brian, and finally Kevin. Some of the photographs are taken at Port Elliott where the Magareys owned a house ‘Ratoua’.
[Formerly Box 1, item 17.]

Single photograph of South Australian troops, JRM given as Capt Magarey (RMO), Gawler 1939. [Majority of the people in the photo are identified. Also includes a photo of ‘James Rupert Magarey (1914-1990) in Adelaide, ca.1940’ (in Army uniform).] Formerly Box 1, item 23.

Single photograph of troops marching away from the Torrens Parade Ground, with JRM in the lead. [ca.1940?]. [Formerly Box 1, item 24.]

Two manila envelopes and one green spring folder containing JRM's letters to his new wife, Catherine Mary Magarey, nee Gilbert, during World War Two. [In addition to the letters, which cover the time period 1940-1949, there are also 7 photographs of JRM whilst on active service together with some explanatory notes.] [Formerly Box 1, item 25.]

Two large manila envelopes containing photocopies of JRM's copy of a History of the 2/6 Australian Field Ambulance, Australian Imperial Force, World War II, 1939-1945 (JRM served on the Kokoda Trail], and a Report of Medical Services of Kokoda Area and L of C by Maj. J.R. Magarey, SMO Maroubra 17 Aug—10 Sep. [JRM was mentioned in dispatches in the Syrian Campaign, 1941-2, and appears in the official war history, in Raymond Paull's Retreat from Kokoda, and Sir Frank Kingsley Norris's No Memory for Pain.] [Majority of manuscript is handwritten, and contains what appears to be appendices given the numbering sequences. Pages 99, 101, 174 are missing. Numbering of main text stops at 222; there is another sequence at the end running from 233-257. Also includes 3 hand drawn maps. Compiled by Brain Wise.] [Formerly Box 1, item 26.]

[Photocopies of land transactions/holdings relating to Thomas Magarey, as recorded in the Lands Title Office. nd. 0.5 cm. Located in Box 1 but not recorded in Susan Magarey’s list.]

Obituary for Sir Rupert Magarey, from the S.A. Medical Review, November 1990. Located in Box 1 but not recorded in Susan Magarey’s list.

Three photographs, one of the Resident Medical Officers, Royal Adelaide Hospital 1948, another of the Foundation Honorary Staff of the Queen Elizabeth Hospital, 1959, and another without any identification (almost certainly RAH staff). [Formerly Box 2, item 1.]
Four manila folders dealing with JRM's professional career as a surgeon, as President of the SA Branch of the Australian Medical Association, then as President of the Australian Medical Association, finally as a Knight Bachelor, awarded for his services to medicine and medical education.
The first of these folders also contains a cv for R.E. Magarey. The last includes a letter from Dr. Susan Magarey to her father about whether or not he could — as he had been invited to do — acquire a coat of arms.
1946-1983. 2 cm
[Formerly Box 1, item 2.]

Large pale brown sheet itemising income and expenditure for 1946-7.
(NB This does not include any provision for clothing for Mary Magarey [CMM], JRM's wife. She continued to receive a clothes allowance from her mother, C. Pauline Gilbert, possibly for the remainder of Pauline Gilbert's life. Also, while this sheet includes a column for rent, Mary Magarey's three aunts, Dorothy, Marjory and Emily Gilbert, gave to JRM and CMM the house that they had previously lived in at 14 Dutton Terrace, Medindie.) [Labeled 'Expenditure from 31 Jan 1946 to 31 Jan 1947 (as estimated from cheque heels'.]
[Formerly Box 2, item 3.]

Three sheets of paper clipped together detailing expenses for Kingston Terrace, the house that JRM and Mary Magarey bought and did up in 1971.

she had a radical mastectomy in March 1963.
[Formerly Box 2, item 5.]

Envelope of photographs of JRM and a group of other men in coats, and then of parts of England. (I surmise that these are from the time when JRM got to Britain to sit the exams for his fellowship of the Royal College of Surgeons.) [Some are identified, including the following people: RJM, Norman Withenhall, Graeme Grove, Peter Parson, Sr Sheldon, Bill Irvin, Graham McKenzie, the Duke of Northumberland, and Mrs Morton
Keswick. Only date given is August 1948.]
[Formerly Box 2, item 6.]

Travel diary kept by CMM for the first few months of the journey that JRM and CMM took to the United States, England and Europe, JRM on a Harkness Fellowship to investigate the state of medical education in the USA IN 1964. [Also includes a calling card for Lady Magarey. 1.5 cm.]
[Formerly Box 2, item 7.]
Red folder containing photographs relating to JRM's time as President of the Australian Medical Association. [Comprises a (red) presentation folder with a photograph of the 'Executive Officers and Secretary General, Federal Council AMA, 12 June 1979' with 16 signatures. In addition there are number of loose photos from various events relating to his professional life (those identified include 'Official banquet by president of Japan Medical Association Dr. Takemi', nd; Court of Examiners RACS, Sydney, May 1968; Court of Examiners, RACS, in Singapore, April 1979, featuring Sundaraysen, Alan Sharpe, Clarrie Leggett, A.C. Almost daily entries detailing his activities, people he met, etc.

Diaries of James William Magarey
1874-1878, 1888, 1890. 17 cm (5 volumes)
Diaries for the years 1874, 1876, 1878 (in an 1876 book are identified with JWM’s name; the 1888 volume isn’t named but appears to be in the same hand, as does the 1890 diary which is labeled ‘Narracoorte Station’. Entries vary in quantity of detail and are there are many blank pages in the earlier volumes, but are more consistent in 1888 and 1890 diaries when JWM appears to have been living at Naracoorte Station. The 1888 diary was inside the cover of a much larger volume used as a newspaper cutting book [see series 61]. Also located in this volume were two letters – one addressed to Thomas Magarey from William Chapman (21 October 1879); the other from A Campbell to Mr Attiwill of Naracoorte (24 January 1872) – these are housed adjacent to the diaries.

Diaries of Helen Mary Magarey nee Attiwill (1857-1950)
