Series 64 : Letters written by George Fife Angas

1. Copy of extracts from letters from GFA to John Fenwick, his attorney in Newcastle on Tyne. The covering letter is from Milton near Gravesend, written 8 June 1860, but with extracts of letters from Angas written 27-28 September 1850.

2. Letter from GFA at Angaston to Jonathan Angus, Newcastle on Tyne, 20 February 1864. Half of the page has copies of a letter from GFA’s elder brother John Lindsay Angas, 3 Ravensworth Terrace, Newcastle to John Fenwick of 20 March 1850, with a copy of Fenwick’s letter to GFA from Bowden near Manchester of 6 April 1850. A separate page contains a post script to Angas’s letter. The envelope is included.

3. Letter from GFA in Adelaide to Jonathan Angus, Newcastle on Tyne of 26 July 1864. It mentions GFA’s daughter Mrs Rosetta Hannay of Angaston and a marriage settlement made with her first husband James Johnson, solicitor of Manchester.

4. Letter from GFA at Lindsay Park near Angaston to John Fenwick, solicitor, Newcastle on Tyne, of 25 March 1865.

5. Letter from GFA at Lindsay Park to Jonathan Angus, Newcastle, of 25 September 1865. Mention is made of the ill health of his wife Rosetta and his hope that it would improve with the coming of spring.

7. Letter from GFA in Adelaide to Jonathan Angus, Newcastle on Tyne, of 27 January 1866.

8. Letter from GFA’s land steward William Clark at Lindsay Park to Jonathan Angus, of 24 June 1867 with a letter from GFA included as part, of 25 June 1867.

9. Letter from GFA at Lindsay Park to Jonathan Angus, Newcastle on Tyne, of 25 October 1867. Mention is made of two trustees in SA, James Smith, merchant in Adelaide, and his own grandson James Angas Johnson of Angaston, should the money from the sale of land in Newcastle be transferred to SA.

10. Letter from GFA at Lindsay Park to Jonathan Angus, Newcastle on Tyne, of 25 February 1870. GFA expresses his view of the handling of his father’s affairs by his English solicitors, in particular the problems encountered by the transfer of the deed of trust to him on the eve of his departure to SA from Plymouth in October 1850.

11. Statement by another relating to Angas Court property and south side of St John’s Lane, Newcastle with trustees' names, from the will of Caleb Angas. Includes a note added by GFA at the bottom (nd, probably early 1860s).

12. Statement by another relating to north side of St John's Lane, Newcastle with trustees' names, from the will of Caleb Angas. Includes a note added by GFA at the bottom (nd, probably early 1860s).
